Fifth Grade Honor's Day

Fifth grade students marched in to Pomp and Circumstance to begin the annual Honor's Day celebration. Mrs. Mathis welcomed a large crowd of parents and friends as well as Mr. Eric Johnson from the Board of Education and Dr. Matt Faircloth from Hahira Middle School. Mrs. Mathis and Mr. Wilkes recognized students for Math Is Radical, Math League, Writing Fair, Spelling Bee, Safety Patrol, Honor Roll, Perfect Attendance, Art, Music and PE awards. Students winning academic excellence awards for highest averages and Presidential Silver and Gold awards were also recognized. Mrs. Mathis presented the 5th grade class to Dr. Faircloth. The class then sang their class song to end the program. Below are pictures from Honor's Day, 2018.

for college. The Path2College 529 Plan and DECAL partner on the We Care, Child Care sweepstakes for Pre-K students across the state of Georgia. Four students are selected from across the state, and this year, Alexander Francis from Hahira Elementary was selected. Alexander received a college scholarship in the amount of $1,529. HES was given a gift of $529. to be used to further our college preparation efforts. The money will be used to promote reading because this is so important in the preparation of students for success in college. Mr. Mitch Seabaugh represented Governor Deal during a special presentation ceremony at Hahira Elementary on Thursday. Alexander delighted everyone when he received his check and was able to read the amount without help and also announced that he wanted to attend Georgia! Alexander's parents, friends and classmates were present to see the presentation. Congratulations to Alexander!

Kaylin Clemons, a 2nd grade student in Shelly McAtee's classroom was a 1st place winner in the Raisin' Cane artwork contest. Mrs. Jessica Bolesta and a large group from Raisin' Cane and the Langdale Foundation were present along with Kaylin's parents, family, and classmates to congratulate her. Kaylin received a check for $250, and her teacher, Mrs. McAtee received a check for $1000. Congratulations to Kaylin!

Special Honors and Awards Ceremony

Hahira Elementary was pleased to host two special awards ceremonies on Wednesday morning. Two HES students were honored. It is never too early to prepare
